Application for ERASMUS+

Erasmus+ and the European Commission offer year-round fundings for adult education, cultural exchange and business language courses. ActiLingua is proud to be part of this project that supports professional training as well as cultural awareness and exchange in Austria.

The costs can be fully funded by Erasmus+.

Please contact your local Erasmus+ agency regarding the next deadlines! In previous years there was a deadline for applications for courses in July and August in February.

ActiLingua Academy was founded in 1988 and is a well-established training institute with international reputation. We offer high quality German language training, cultural activities, accommodation and evaluation through certificates such as OSD (Austrian German Language Diploma).

Our German Teachers' Course and German and Teacher Training can be funded up to 100 % as part of the Erasmus+ KA1 programme. We recommend participants to apply at their Erasmus National Agency as soon as possible.

ActiLingua also offers a Business German and a German Intensive and Culture in Vienna programme which can also be funded by Erasmus+. Requirements and deadlines are available at the Erasmus National Agency in your home country.

Current situation in Vienna

Face-to-face classes: Due to the easing of the lockdown measures by the Austrian government, we have switched back to face-to-face classes from February 15, 2021 onwards.

Hygiene measures: We carry out the following security measures at ActiLingua:

- 2 Covid 19 tests / week for all ActiLingua employees and students
- Minimum distance of at least 2 meters throughout the school
- teachers and students are obligated to wear a FFP2 mask throughout the school

All ActiLingua employees and students are obligated to take a Rapid Antigen Test every Monday and Wednesday before the course (between 8:15 am and 8:45 am). The test is sponsored by ActiLingua and is free of charge for ActiLingua students.

The ActiLingua Residence is remaining open for our students. Breakfast or half-board can not be served in the ActiLingua Residence until further notice. The use of kitchen in the apartment is included in the price.

Shops, shopping centres, pharmacies, gas stations and drug stores, museums, zoos, libraries, hairdressers etc. are open. Restaurants and leisure facilities, including gyms, theatres and concert halls are currently closed.

New entry regulations to Austria from February 08, 2021:

Anyone entering Austria is required to register electronically before entering the country, and present a medical certificate, not older than 72 hours, which confirms a negative Covid 19 test result. If this is not possible, a Covid 19 test must be carried out immediately after entry, within 24 hours. Upon entry to Austria, tourists will have to self-quarantine for 10 days. Most tourists have the option to end quarantine after at least 5 days if a negative PCR test can be shown. We recommend to attend our Live Online German classes via Zoom, during the 5/10 days of self-quarantine.
